FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SIG SAUER® Pro Shooter Lena Miculek Wins Ladies Division at Zombies in the Heartland 3-Gun Match

Newington, N.H. (June 14, 2016) – SIG SAUER, Inc., is pleased to announce that Team SIG member, Lena Miculek, was named the Ladies Division Champion at the Zombies in the Heartland 3-Gun match, which concluded last weekend in Grand Island, Nebraska. Miculek was crowned the division champion after she bested a talented field of 21 female competitors by more than 82 points, en route to a 10th place overall finish amongst all competitors.

Throughout the three days of competition, Miculek opted to compete with a SIG SAUER P320® chambered in 9mm along with a SIG SAUER M400® rifle. The SIG SAUER pistol and rifle combination proved accurate, as Lena placed 2nd overall in two of the 10 stages of fire designed to simulate hypothetical shooting scenarios of a zombie pandemic.

“Anytime you can come home with a win, it’s a great accomplishment, especially when you consider the level of competition and challenging course design of this year’s match,” said Lena Miculek. “One of the major reasons I chose to compete with SIG SAUER firearms this year, was the inherent accuracy that comes with each model. The accuracy of my P320 and M400 rifle allows me to carry a higher level of confidence into any match, and sometimes that extra reassurance can make all the difference.”

As multi-gun competitions continue to represent one of the fastest growing segments of the shooting sports, SIG SAUER products are poised to offer shooters a competitive advantage. Designed, engineered and manufactured to one uncompromising standard, the SIG SAUER commitment to quality and reliability is evident in every division of the multi-faceted company. Serving as a complete systems provider, SIG SAUER offers the most dependable and innovative firearms, ammunition, optics and silencers to competitive shooters everywhere.

Up next for Team SIG member, Lena Miculek, will be the War Sports Team Challenge to be held on June 25-26, 2016 at the Woody’s Hunting & Rifle Club in New Hill, North Carolina.
